Dear Harold:

I was in Washington over Memorial Day weekend, and called you a few times, but your letter explains why I did not get you.

Received Collyer's piece and the blow-ups, but no film yet. As it is, the pictures are somewhat less interesting than the article.

The petition to Congress on R. & H. was a result of a little spade work that Allan did with your friend, Birkhead. I enclose his release, which I wish you would return to me.

Regards,

Rob
